

I am opposed to CBA using the "established business relationship" to allow them to call my home as many times as they wish. I am satisfied with the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law that has drastically decreased unwanted phone solicitations to my residence.